DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-15 and 17-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Afriat (US 2002/0028222 A1, disclosed by applicants).

Afriat teaches the use of fibers (including polyethylene or polypropylene) and an agent to treat greasy skin to make a skin care composition or skin matte, the amount of fiber is within applicants claimed range. See abstract,[0018]-[0022], [0030],[0034],[0043] and examples. Afriat teaches that the length (L) of the fibers could be from 1 μm to 5 mm and a diameter (D) ranging from 1nm to 50 μm and the ratio of L/D is from 5 to 150, all of the dimensions above are within applicants claimed range. The compositions could be in many forms including emulsions, dispersions such as creams, anhydrous compositions, powders and lipsticks. Regarding claims 14-15 Afriat demonstrated the mate effect of the compositions by measuring skin sheen after 15 minutes and an hour, thus the composition was applied to the skin for the times claimed by applicants. See [0058].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1618

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Afriat (US 2002/0028222 A1, disclosed by applicants).

Afriat is disclosed above. Afriat does not disclose that the composition is applied for about 3 or more hours to a subject. However it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to optimize the time in which the cosmetics are permitted to remain on the skin/hair/lips because these are matters ordinarily dealt with by the skilled artisan. Furthermore cosmetics such as a lipstick once applied could remain on the lips for at least three hours or until the subject wanted to remove the make-up. In summary it is not considered by the examiner to be patentably unique to claim the time a makeup is allowed to remain on the surface of skin/lips/hair because ordinarily the person applying the make up will remove it when it has fulfilled its function.
